DENY GIRL'S DEATH SOLVED

CALL ROCKEFELLER IN TEAPOT DOME QUIZ

"RICHEST MAN" IS SUBPOENAED FOR HEARING ON SATURDAY

Senate Public Lands Committee Orders Appearance.

MARSHAL ACTS Largest Stockholder Believed in Dark About Bonds.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was subpoenaed today by the Senate Public Lands committee to appear as a witness Saturday in the new Teapot Dome inquiry. The United States marshal at New York City was asked to serve the subpoena on the so-called "richest man in the world."

Rockefeller accepted service by telegram, it was announced this afternoon.

Chairman of Foundation. Rockefeller has been called to tell what he knows about the Continental Trading company's mysterious $50,000,000 oil deal and its even more mysterious $3,000,000 Liberty bond "slush fund."

Rockefeller is not expected to divulge and new information but the committee was convinced that he ought to be put on the witness stand to prove that the largest stockholders in the oil companies involved knew little or nothing about the mysterious deals.

Rockefeller came into the picture because he is chairman of the board of trustees of the Rockefeller foundation, which virtually owns the Standard Oil company of Indiana. The latter concern in turn owned half of the Sinclair Crude Oil company, which bought fifty per cent of the oil from the Continental at $1.75 a barrel which bought it the same day for $1.50 a barrel from A. E. Humphreys, Texas oil man. The Continental made $3,000,000 on the deal.

Two motives prompted the Senate Public Lands committee to summon Rockefeller as a witness. First, some senators wanted him called to prove that the committee was "playing no favorites." Second, other senators felt he should take the witness stand to show that Rockefeller did not approve of the action of Robert W. Stewart.

Compound Interest.

Lindbergh's Leg End.

G. B. Shaw on God.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

[The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review-Tribune.]

AN ANONYMOUS British patriot has given 500,000 pounds to be held by Baring Brothers for many years, interest compounded and accumulated and the total used finally to diminish Britain's debt.

One dollar placed at compound interest when Christ was born would now pay the debts of the whole world, public and private, and leave plenty over. It is a fascinating idea. But Britons directly or indirectly will pay the compound interest on the 500,000 pounds. You cannot make something out of nothing, compound interest, or anything else.

LINDBERGH possesses an admirable style, which is the absence of any effort at style, the style born in a man of power. Cromwell possessed it, no words wasted, nothing important omitted.

DESCRIBING an ancient fortress on a Haytian mountain top 3,000 feet high, flying low Lindbergh saw heaps of antiquated cannon balls, piled row on row and told how the Negro king, George Christophe, to prove the perfect discipline in his army, "marched an entire company over one of the precipitous walls," to death.

THE legend is easily believed, for military and religious discipline accomplish miracles, besides making people believe in them. Jewish historians tell of a pretended Messiah, long after the coming of Christianity, who finally came to believe in himself and ordered a host of his followers to walk with him on the water separating Europe from Asia. They, believing, followed and were drowned with him.

SEDAN PLUNGES 200 FEET; MAN ONLY BRUISED

H. J. Seacrist, 40, in Chester-Newell Road Accident.

CAR IS WRECKED Machine, Overturning, Blocks Railroad Track.

H. J. Seacrist, 40, salesman of 409 Vine street, suffered minor injuries when his sedan plunged over a 200-foot declivity along the Chester-Newell road, east of the Newell bridge, shortly after 6 o'clock last night.

Seacrist, enroute from Chester to Newell, said that he drove too near the edge of the road in order to pass another car. The machine overturned on the hillside.

As the car rolled over the embankment, it is said to have been caught by a sapling long enough to give Seacrist an opportunity to escape. An instant later the auto dropped to the Pennsylvania railroad tracks, completely demolishing it.

Seacrist was taken to the City hospital, where Dr. M. D. McCutcheon made an examination of his injuries which consisted of bruises to his chest and minor cuts. He was later removed to his home.

The wreckage of the car halted the Steubenville-Chester passenger train. McElravy Brothers later cleared the track.

LEVINE'S PLANE MAY GO TOMORROW

ROOSEVELT Field, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Unless favorable conditions arrive earlier than predicted, the trans-Atlantic monoplane Columbia, carrying Charles A. Levine and Wilmer Stultz as copilots and possibly Miss Mabel Boll as a passenger on a flight to an unannounced destination in the south, will take off tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, Stultz announced today.

The pilot said Dr. James Kimball, of the U. S. weather bureau, predicted ideal weather conditions for flying tomorrow.

MILL MAN HURT IN CRANE CRASH

Herman Hughes, 24, Island avenue, crane operator at the National Drawn Steel company plant, was injured in the face at 8:30 o'clock this morning when the crane which he was operating crashed into another machine on the same track.

Hughes was thrown forward by the impact, his face striking a cross bar in the cab.

He was taken to the City hospital in an automobile. Dr. M. D. McCutcheon attended him.

Mill officials, who investigated the accident, said that Hughes had suffered no broken bones.

The committee voted, 6 to 3, that Beck, successor to Senator-elect Vardaman of Pennsylvania, was properly a resident of Philadelphia at the time of his election and therefore was entitled to his seat.

Contest against him was brought by Representative Garrett of Tennessee, Democratic leader.

MAN PERISHES IN CALIFORNIA FIRE

GLANDALE, Cal., Feb. 9.—One man is believed to have been burned to death, several beautiful homes have been destroyed and the Oakmont and Flint-ridge Country clubs were threatened by spreading rapidly in the face of a high wind today.

Both fires started early today when a wind storm struck the mountain area.

S. W. CRAWFORD LAUDS COURTS

Criticism Unjustified, he Tells Kiwanis Club.

Courts of the country were defended by Attorney S. W. Crawford in an address before 60 members of the Kiwanis club and their guests at the luncheon meeting in the Travelers' Hotel grill, Fourth street, today.

Special guests were City Chemist Hart Larkins, Dr. K. C. Dotson, Wilfred Devan, Milo Russell, Frank Chambers, Albert Froesch and B. H. Cochran. President Ralph Couch, elected last week to serve the unexpired term of Rev. B. R. Johnson, presided.

O. H. Dawson, Charles Larkins and Frank Crook were appointed to draft resolutions for the late S. C. Killiams, charter member, who died last Saturday. A memorial service for Mr. Williams and other members who have died recently will be conducted in the near future.

"There are some people in this country who love the constitution," said Attorney Crawford. "There are others who have no respect for it while it is a group is indifferent. Remus, of Cincinnati, didn't like the laws of the United States and he proceeded to violate them. A jury of 12 persons found him insane. Young Hickman in California is being tried for murder which he committed for money. There's something wrong with his mind."

"Our courts are criticized unjustly. When some one condemns the court he thinks that he is striking at the judge. You hear that the courts are crooked. When a jury of 12 disinterested persons reach the same decision there is not much chance for crookedness."

Attorney Crawford also paid a high tribute to S. C. Williams in whose death he declared "the city lost a good citizen, his wife a good husband, his children a good father and the benevolent organizations of the community a cheerful contributor."

HAVANA HAS EYES ONLY FOR ONE MAN—LINDY

Cuban Capital Forgets Pan-American Conference.

FLYER CHEERED "Lone Eagle" Guest at Luncheon, Then Goes to Ball.

HAVANA, Feb. 9.—A great international conference between the republics of North, Central and South America may be going on here today, but Havana, and indeed, the whole island of Cuba had eyes only for one man—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

The flush of Havana's magnificent welcome to the flying colonel has not worn off an iota and today everyone from the Cuban citizens to the officials and their own and sister governments rushed to do honor to the "Caballero del Aire" and to gather in cheering crowds wherever it was reported Col. Lindbergh might be seen.

At noon today Col. Lindbergh was to be honored at a luncheon given by the officers of the Cuban army at Camp Columbia. Later he was to go to a ball at the yacht club at which most of the delegates to the Pan-American conference will be present.

The newspapers today were filled with Col. Lindbergh's doings and printed editorials on his achievements as an emissary of good will.

The general city-wide reception to Col. Lindbergh as he dropped from the sky yesterday afternoon after completing his flight from Haiti in perfect time was something which will be remembered by every Cuban.

As the Spirit of St. Louis was sighted from the historic Morro castle, the last stronghold of old Spain, sirens screamed, whistles shrieked and the horns of automobiles and the bells of street cars filled the air.

Lindy had arrived.

Greeted by Machado. After the reception at the field, a motor procession was formed to escort Col. Lindbergh to the presidential palace where President Machado greeted him officially. In his greeting, President Machado included one for Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, the aviator's mother. It read:

"To your good mother, who awaits you with open arms, say in our name that her son discharges a great mission of love and peace, and that we, as also the other countries you have visited, owe her sincere acknowledgment for having brought to the world a person who has done so much for brotherhood among all peoples."

"Tell her that our hearts feel for her and that in my person Cuba sends her its love and admiration."

YOUNG HICKMAN PREDICTS HE WILL HANG FOR CHILD MURDER

"Jury Will be Out Five Minutes," he Says.

CASE NEAR END Los Angeles Court Attaches Predict Speedy Verdict.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 9.—William Edward Hickman predicted his own hanging as he calmly ate breakfast this morning prior to the resuming of his trial for the kidnapping and killing of Marian Parker. "The jury will be out five minutes," Hickman said, "and then it's the 'rope for mine.'"

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Feb. 9.—The fate of William Edward Hickman will be placed today in the hands of the four women and eight men who must decide whether he was sane or crazy when he stole and slew 12-year-old Marian Parker.

The trial of Hickman which has developed into an insanity hearing neared its close today as opposing counsel prepared their final arguments.

With less than three hours remaining for the arguments, the case was expected to be given to the jury early this afternoon.

Jerome Walsh, chief defense counsel, has indicated he will demand a second trial for Hickman if the jury finds he was sane and responsible for his crime.

The new trial will be sought, Walsh explained, on the grounds Hickman is now sane.

Emulator of Hickman Held.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Feb. 9.—A 12-year-old emulator of William Hickman, Los Angeles killer, authorities report, is held in the county jail here today, following the receipt of two letters by William Bowen, superintendent of a brick plant at Strasburg, near here.

The first letter, according to authorities, threatened to kidnap Bowen's young son, Bobbie, and kill him within a week, unless five dollars was deposited near the brick plant. The second letter, it was said, told of a purchase of dynamite and threatened to blow up Bowen's office if the money was not paid.

SARGENT RULES ON RAIL ACREAGE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Ruling that the government through legislative and judicial action has the right to repossess about 6,000,000 acres of land in the northwest from the Northern Pacific Railroad company, Attorney General Sargent submitted a report to congress today in response to a joint resolution adopted at the last session.

While it is held by the government that this large acreage shall be returned by the railroad, the Northern Pacific contends that it should be awarded 3,750,000 acres in addition to that now held. This claim is set up under the original land grants.

RAZOR BLADE USED

Sheriff Claims Man Admitted Choking Sister-in-law.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Feb. 9.—The theory that the body of missing Miss Viola May, 23, was dismembered or mutilated and buried in the earth near the Tuscarawas river, was advanced here this afternoon by Coroner J. Floyd Lewis, who at noon announced he had unearthed the under garments of a woman, in a sandpit.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Feb. 9.—His throat and wrists slashed, William Herron, 41, remained a prisoner in the county jail here today while the authorities dragged the Tuscarawas river for the body of his sister-in-law, Miss Viola May, 23. Although Sheriff Laird last night reported that Herron had confessed to throwing the girl's body into the river, County Prosecutor Patrick this morning declared that no signed confession had been obtained.

Story Kidnaping Tale.

Herron, according to Laird, found an old safety razor blade in his cell during the night. He was found unconscious and bleeding this morning but physicians declare his injuries are not serious.

The girl's appearance was reported early yesterday by Herron. His first story was that he and the girl had been attacked by a band of kidnapers who escaped with the girl after binding him and throwing him into a gravel pit on the Canton-Zoarville road.

Investigators became suspicious of the story when Herron said he had stopped his auto because of a street intersection light. The time was about midnight, and records at police headquarters showed that no traffic lights burn after 11 p. m.

In his reported confession Herron told of attacking the girl in a gravel pit. An argument ensued, he said, when he choked her.

"I choked the girl too long," Laird reported, Herron told him.

Herron told of then taking the girl's body to White bridge, about seven miles north of New Philadelphia, where it was cast into the waters, Laird said. The Tuscarawas river is greatly swollen because of recent rains.

Sheriff Laird upon visiting the gravel pit, he said, found the shoes and a part of the clothing the girl wore. In Herron's auto were found buttons from the girl's dress, her broken spectacles, loose change from her purse and a vanity case.

Miss May with a girl friend, Evelyn Fritz, had visited Herron's wife at the Herron residence. Miss May and Mrs. Herron were sisters. When the girls left, Herron agreed to drive them home. They first took Miss Fritz home and then started for the house where Miss May was employed as a domestic.

SHELDON CLARK IS EXONERATED

Freed of Contempt in Fall-Sinclair Mistrial.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Sheldon Clark, vice president of the Sinclair Refining company, was exonerated of the charge of contempt of court growing out of jury surveillance in the Fall-Sinclair mistrial today, when Justice Siddons sustained a motion of Clark's counsel to dismiss the rule against him.

The defense made an unsuccessful effort to have Justice Siddons hold up his decision denying the defense motion to dismiss the charges in the Fall-Sinclair case.

Objection was made to language used by the court in rejecting the motion.

Justice Siddons ordered the defense to proceed with its case.

Daniel T. Wright, defense counsel, asked the court to keep "an open mind on the question whether shadowing of the jury constitutes contempt."

"The court always maintains an open mind, Justice Siddons replied testily.

The contempt charges against Harry F. Sinclair, William J. Burns and associates, arose from the mistrial of the Fall-Sinclair conspiracy case.

"WE"

Epic of the Air
by
C. A. Lindbergh

CHAPTER XXX.

When the first few arrived, I attempted to get them to hold the rest of the crowd back, away from the plane, but apparently no one could understand, or would have been able to conform to my request if he had.

I cut the switch to keep the propeller from killing some one, and attempted to organize an impromptu guard for the plane. The impossibility of any immediate organization became apparent and when parts of the ship began to crack from the pressure of the multitude I decided to climb out of the cockpit in order to draw the crowd away.

Speaking was impossible; no words could be heard in the uproar and no body apparently cared to hear any. I started to climb out of the cockpit, but as soon as one foot appeared through the door I was dragged the rest of the way without assistance on my part.

For nearly half an hour I was unable to touch the ground, during which time I was ardently carried around in what seemed to be a very small area, and in every position it is possible to be in. Every one had the best of intentions but no one seemed to know just what they were.

The French military flyers very resourcefully took the situation in hand. A number of them mingled with the crowd; then, at a given signal, they placed my helmet on an American correspondent and cried: "Here is Lindbergh." That helmet on an American was sufficient evidence. The correspondent immediately became the center of attraction, and while he was being taken protesting to the Reception Committee via a rather devious route, I managed to get inside one of the hangars.

Meanwhile a second group of soldiers and police had surrounded the plane and soon placed it out of danger in another hangar.

The French ability to handle an unusual situation with speed and capability was remarkably demonstrated that night at Le Bourget.

Ambassador Herrick extended me an invitation to remain at his Embassy while I was in Paris, which I gladly accepted. But grateful as I was to the time, it did not take me long to realize that a kind Providence had placed me in Ambassador Herrick's hands. The ensuing days found me in situations that I had certainly never expected to be in and in which I relied on Ambassador Herrick's sympathetic aid.

These situations were brought about by the whole-hearted welcome to me—an American—that touched me beyond any point that words can express.

I left France with a debt of gratitude which, though I cannot repay it, I shall always remember. If the French people had been acclaiming their own gallant airmen, Nungesser and Coli, who were lost only after fearlessly departing in the face of conditions insurmountably greater than those that confronted me, their enthusiastic welcome and graciousness could not have been greater.

In Belgium as well, I was received with a warmth which reflected more than simply a passing curiosity in a trans-Atlantic flight, but which was rather a demonstration by the people of their interest in a new means of transportation which eventually would bring still closer together the new world and the old. Their welcome, too, will be a cherished memory for all time.

In England, I experienced one final unforgettable demonstration of friendship for an American. That spontaneous wonderful reception during my brief visit seemed typical of what I had always heard of the good sportsmanship of the English.

My words to all those friends in Europe are inadequate, but my feelings of appreciation are boundless.

Conclusion.

When I was contemplating the flight to Paris I looked forward to making a short tour of Europe, with especial regard to the various airports and aeronautical activities.

After I arrived, however, the necessity of returning became apparent and, after a consultation with Ambassador Houghton, who informed me that President Colidge was sending the cruiser Memphis to Cherbourg for my return journey to America, I flew the "Spirit of St. Louis" to Gosport early one morning. There it was dismantled and crated, through the courtesy of the Royal Air Force which also placed a Woodcock pursuit plane at my disposal.

I returned to London in the Woodcock and a few days later flew to Paris in another R. A. F. machine of the same type.

I remained overnight in Paris, and early the next morning flew a French Breguet to Cherbourg, where the cruiser Memphis was waiting.

Admiral Burrage met me at the dock, and after going aboard the Memphis I became acquainted with Captain Lackey and the officers of

Goitre Not a Disease

Milwaukee Doctor Makes Remarkable Discovery

Milwaukee, Wis. — It has been brought to light by scientific research that goitre is not a disease and is not to be treated as such. Dr. A. A. Rock, Dept. 685, Box 737, Milwaukee, Wis., a prominent goitre specialist for over 24 years, has perfected a different method of treatment for his patients that has proved remarkably successful. This same method is now being used for a home treatment of goitre cases all over the country with astonishing results. The Doctor states goitre is a condition which grows worse with neglect and recommends immediate attention no matter how small the growth may appear. He strongly opposes needless operations. Dr. Rock is the author of a book that tells in a simple way about treating goitre at home. He has published this book at his own expense and will send a copy free to anyone interested. the ship. During the trip across they extended every courtesy and did everything within their power to make the voyage a pleasant one.

A description of my welcome back to the United States would, in itself, be sufficient to fill a larger volume than this. I am not an author by profession, and my pen could never express the gratitude which I feel towards the American people.

The voyage up the Potomac and to the Government Grounds in Washington; up the Hudson River and along Broadway; over the Mississippi and to St. Louis to do justice to these occasions would require a far greater writer than myself.

Washington, New York and finally St. Louis and home. Each of these cities has left me with an impression that I shall never forget, and a debt of gratitude which I can never repay.

A national employment bureau for hotel help has been opened by Clifford M. Lewis, Hotel Expert, Bureau 182, Washington, D. C. Mr. Lewis, foreseeing that the tremendous building program being carried on in the hotel industry would cause a shortage of help, worked out a perfect system whereby ambitious men and women can train themselves at home to be capable hotel executives. He has been successful in placing thousands who have taken advantage of this training in desirable hotel positions. Those interested in hotel work should write for his free book, "Your Big Opportunity" and full particulars of his employment service at once.—Adv.

324 farm housewives say: "This eases tired backs"

WHAT a fresh, wholesome, healthy-looking class of women the farm housewives are! They fly from one task to another with the quickness and suppleness that so many women lose with their first youth.

Yet, if you ask, most of them will confess that often their backs are lame—their feet and ankles aching with fatigue.

We inquired around among farm housewives to find out what they do to relieve the aching and stiffness in overtired muscles, and to take care of the countless small hurts that are always happening around the farm home.

324 of them said that they found Sloan's the very best remedy they can use.

Used everywhere for muscular pain

In one out of every three homes you'll find Sloan's Liniment the standby for every kind of muscular ache, for rheumatism, for colds and chest congestions and for all kinds of minor injuries.

Read this letter from a farm housewife telling of quick relief from an injury:

"I fell out of a cherry tree. The branch I was on broke and I fell fourteen feet. I hurt my hip and I suffered agony. I used Sloan's, and I don't even feel it any more. I think Sloan's is splendid."

And this—telling the help that Sloan's gave to a persistent case of muscular pain:

"I could not sleep or do my work, but now I sleep well, walk and do my work with ease. I used Sloan's Liniment only once and it relieved me of my pain. It is just wonderful."

Sloan's works by the quickest, most effective method known for relieving pain. It stirs up the circulation—sends a healing tide of fresh, germ-destroying blood direct to the spot that hurts—gives you quick, positive relief.

Always keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment on hand. At your druggist's you can get one that lasts a long time for 35 cents. Use it for:

Rheumatism    Lame muscles
Sciatica       Stiff neck
Lumbago       Colds and Neuralgia       congestions
Sprains and bruises

A doctor whose practice takes in numbers of men and women who work hard under all kinds of trying conditions, says of Sloan's: "People whose work exposes them to strain or to damp and cold usually suffer from a good deal of muscular soreness. We find that Sloan's gives them quick, positive relief."

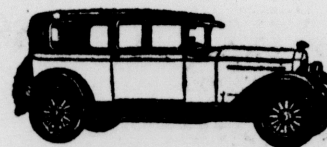

The farm housewife has learned that she can ease tired, aching muscles with Sloan's

LONDON—Because it is now considered out-of-date and unnecessary in present day warfare, the lance, one of the most picturesque weapons of the British army, is to disappear from practical use.

An army order states that it has been decided to abolish the lance as a weapon of war. Henceforth it will not be carried on field training, but will be retained by Lancer regiments for ceremonial purposes only.

Don't Squeeze Blackheads — Dissolve Them

Squeezing out blackheads makes large, ugly pores. The safe and sane way to get rid of these blemishes is to dissolve them. Get two ounces of Calorie powder from your drug store, sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth, rub over the blackheads, and every one, big or little, will disappear at once.

This hard-water soap soaks clothes whiter!

I USED to be dead tired every wash-day because I had such a heavy wash and it was such a hard job for me. But no more drudgery for me! Now I use Rinso, the great hard-water soap. It loosens the dirt and stains like magic! Clothes come out so white and snowy that I scarcely have to rub a thing. I don't even bother boiling any more.

Rinso alone—without a softener—makes our water wonderfully soft and sudsy. And the suds stand right up until I'm ready to rinse.

One of my neighbors uses Rinso in her washer. She says it's great, too—no other soap comes up to it.

Just ask your grocer for

CHARMINGLY SIMPLE

Smart simplicity is expressed in alluring model for the woman who insists on a youthful appearance. It is charmingly lovely interpreted in novelty silk crepe in interesting color scheme, with waistline marked with a narrow belt of soft canton-faille crepe ribbon in the predominating color of the fabric. It will prove economical too, for it can be worn all through the Spring. Black chiffon velvet self trimmed, navy blue silk crepe with matching suede belt with bright buckle, tan angora jersey, beige georgette crepe, featherweight tweed in diagonal weave, Chanel blue crepe Roma, soft green crepe, and novelty woolen or silk crepe in new border pattern, are also appropriate and extremely smart, for Style No. 3184. It is surprisingly easy to make! The effective yoke is formed by cutting in from armholes and underarm edges, the lower edge of which is gathered and joined to upper edge. The shirring which creates snug hip-line is made in much the same manner—simply cut along perforated line, and shirred and joined to upper edge. The dress is then ready to be seamed at sides and shoulders and sleeves set into armholes. Note the lower edge of skirt is straight, making it suitable for new border materials. Pattern can be had in 16, 18 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure, and requires but 3/4 yards of 40-inch material to make it for the 36-inch size. An elegant dress at a comparatively small outlay. Pattern price 15 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred). Our patterns are made by the leading Fashion Designers of New York City and are guaranteed to fit perfectly. In ordering this pattern, we suggest that you enclose 10 cents extra for a copy of our Spring Fashion Magazine containing photos of Norma Talmadge, Constance Talmadge, Renee Adoree, etc., styles of Colleen Moore, Clara Bow, Dorothy Mackaill, Billie Dove, Mary Astor, etc., and 100 other styles. ## Liver Doesn't Hurt but Watch Out

The dangerous thing about liver trouble is that it may be present and not recognized as such! No pain probably in the vicinity of the liver, but mysterious sick headaches, dizzy spells, kidney disturbances and probably heart palpitation and high blood pressure.

No organ will bear closer watching than the liver. It's the liver's important job to keep the blood clean of the poisons formed in food waste. Let the liver become sluggish, as it frequently does under the strain of modern living, and the whole system becomes toxic, which weakens stomach, kidneys and heart.

The liver occasionally needs a little help, and there's nothing better for this, as medical men know, than a little ox gall. Ox gall is a remarkable natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal, active functioning. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol. They cost less than 2c each at good druggists.

Man Claims Wife Eats Too Much

Due to stomach trouble, Mrs. F. M. Noble was hardly eating anything. After taking Adlerika, her husband says she keeps him bustling to buy food.

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, saline, etc. (known as Adlerika), has a most surprising DOUBLE action. First, it acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel (most medicines act on lower bowel only) and removes foul matter that often poisons the system for months. Second, Adlerika clears all GAS and sourness from stomach and bowels, bringing INSTANT relief from stomach trouble. And in addition, Adlerika removes metabolic poisons which cause neuritis, rheumatism, etc.

Dr. H. L. Shoup, New York, writes:

"Adlerika, in addition to its intestinal cleansing, checks the growth of intestinal bacteria and bacilli."

Dr. J. Weaver: "In my 50 years' practice, I have found nothing to excel Adlerika."

J. E. Puckett: "After using Adlerika, I feel better than for 20 years. Awful impurities were eliminated."

It will astonish you the great amount of poisonous matter Adlerika brings out—matter you would never believe was in your system. In chronic constipation, gas bloating, sour stomach and sick headache, just ONE spoonful Adlerika brings wonderful relief. At leading druggists. Sold in East Liverpool by Carnahan Drug Company and other Druggists.

Liver Doesn't Hurt but Watch Out

The dangerous thing about liver trouble is that it may be present and not recognized as such. No pain probably in the vicinity of the liver, but mysterious sick headaches, dizzy spells, kidney disturbances and probably heart palpitation and high blood pressure.

No organ will bear closer watching than the liver. It's the liver's important job to keep the blood clean of the poisons formed in food waste. Let the liver become sluggish, as it frequently does under the strain of modern living, and the whole system becomes toxic, which weakens stomach, kidneys and heart.

The liver occasionally needs a little help, and there's nothing better for this, as medical men know, than a little ox gall. Ox gall is a remarkable natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal, active functioning. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol. They cost less than 2c each at good druggists.

Man Claims Wife Eats Too Much

Due to stomach trouble, Mrs. F. M. Noble was hardly eating anything. After taking Adlerika, her husband says she keeps him hustling to buy food.

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, saline, etc., (known as Adlerika), has a most surprising DOUBLE action. First, it acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel (most medicines act on lower bowel only) and removes foul matter that often poisons the system for months. Second, Adlerika clears all GAS and sourness from stomach and bowels, bringing INSTANT relief from stomach trouble. And in addition, Adlerika removes metabolic poisons which cause neuritis, rheumatism, etc.

Dr. H. L. Shoup, New York, writes: "Adlerika, in addition to its intestinal cleansing, checks the growth of intestinal bacteria and bacilli."

Dr. J. Weaver: "In my 50 years' practice, I have found nothing to excel Adlerika."

J. E. Puckett: "After using Adlerika, I feel better than for 20 years. Awful impurities were eliminated. It will astonish you the great amount of poisonous matter Adlerika brings out—matter you would never believe was in your system. In chronic constipation, gas, bloating, sour stomach and sick headache, just ONE spoonful Adlerika brings wonderful relief. At leading druggists. Sold in East Liverpool by Carnahan Drug Company and other Druggists."

"BREAD LINE" IS ESTABLISHED IN BOWERY; 7,202 MEN FED

With 4,000,000 Workers Idle in United States, Situation is Acute, Specialists Report.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—For the first time since the winter of 1920-21 a "bread line" has been established in the Bowery.

Thousands of men are out of work and their numbers are being constantly augmented. Last week the Bowery mission fed 7,202 men, the Rev. John R. Henry, superintendent, said today. Other welfare organizations are similarly active and some of the social workers insist that a "crisis" is at hand. If severe weather sets in, suffering will be intense.

Elsewhere, as well as in New York city, the situation is acute. The Labor Bureau, Inc., specialists in economic research for labor unions, report that 4,000,000 workers are out of employment in the United States.

Governor Alfred E. Smith has taken cognizance of conditions. He has instructed Commissioner James A. Hamilton of the state labor department to undertake a survey of the unemployment situation in New York City and to furnish him with all available information concerning conditions throughout the state, with a view of speeding up the state's public works program or taking other necessary steps to provide employment.

"I haven't seen as many men out of jobs and dead broke since the winter of 1914-15," said the Rev. Henry. "And I have been in mission work in the Bowery for the past 30 years. It is reminiscent of the terrible winter of 1898-99."

IN 1910 George B. Shaw wrote Tolstoi, "God does not yet exist, but there is a creative force constantly struggling to evolve an executive organ of Godlike knowledge and power."

Every human born represents that effort to produce good, according to Shaw. He says the modern conception of God surrounded by inferior beings, "like a Russian nobleman," is barbarous.

DARWIN never went as far as that, in evolution. Shaw, who says, "A God of love could not be at the same time a God of epilepsy and cancer," may have a vague hope that himself represents the latest, and fairly satisfactory type of Divine evolution.

TEMPORARY imperfection, in a developing race, or a building under construction, does not mean incompetency. In its creator Shaw would be surprised to see himself, now, as he looked 7 months before he was born. That dreadful embryo was a necessary prelude to the perfect Shaw. And so it may be with our embryonic civilization, its injustice, poverty, misery and disease.

TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY American cities having over 30,000 population spent on public schools, in 1925, $607,000,000, one-third of their income. That is called "a great deal of money," but it is little considering that the country's future is in the public schools and the amount spent for education is only $6.30 per capita in big cities—less than the amount spent for chewing gum, cigarettes, ice cream and similar American necessities.

A country that can wisely spend three billions for automobiles in a year, might spend twice that for education.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The capital was under two flags today as official and diplomatic circles repaid to flying sons of France the reception accorded Colonel Lindbergh in Paris last summer.

Lieutenant Diendonne Costes, of the French army, and Lieutenant Commander Joseph Le Brix, of the French navy, who arrived from their native country by way of South Africa, South America, Central America and Mexico, were the center of colorful receptions today as their sturdy monoplane, the Nungesser-Coll, was being conditioned at Bolling field for their hop to New York.

The airmen have flown approximately 20,000 miles over four continents since they left Paris last October.

Visit White House.

Feted by diplomatic and military groups at the French embassy last night following their arrival at the army field shortly after 4 o'clock, the aviators were guests today of aviation circles and the general public. Two cabinet members, the acting secretary of state and a host of high ranking military and naval officers made up the colorful and enthusiastic throng which hailed the flyers upon their arrival.

Following their presentation to President Coolidge at the White House this morning by Ambassador Claudel, they will be guests at a hotel luncheon given by the "air cabinet," composed of the three aviation secretaries of the war, navy and commerce departments.

The guest list includes Lieutenants Mailand and Hegenberger, the first to fly from San Francisco to Honolulu, and scores of famous aviators from both military and civilian service.

Tonight, the airmen will be honored by a ball at the French embassy to which a notable assemblage of high government officials, diplomatic representatives and social leaders have been invited.

TURNER RULES ON HOLIDAY QUERY

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 9.—A ruling that Lincoln's birthday, February 12, "is only a holiday for the purpose of computing time in reference to payment and protest of commercial paper" was given today by Attorney General Edward C. Turner to State Treasurer Bert S. Buckley.

"The fact that February 12, 1928, falls on Sunday does not require state departments to observe Monday, February 13, as a holiday," said Turner.

Turner declared, also, that the fact that Armistice day this year falls on Sunday—November 11—does not require state departments to observe Monday, November 12, as a holiday.

In view of this ruling, it was expected that state departments will remain open on February 13 and on November 12.

Turner declared, also, that the fact that Armistice day this year falls on Sunday—November 11—does not require state departments to observe Monday, November 12, as a holiday.

In view of this ruling, it was expected that state departments will remain open on February 13 and on November 12.

BETTER HOMES, MORE HEALTHFUL FOOD CITED AS DRY LAW BENEFITS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The hand that rocks the cradle grows firmer under prohibition, and child health improves annually under constitutional aridity, but the benefits are entirely lost upon the fathers and brothers of the country.

These are the conclusions drawn today by Dr. Louis I. Dublin, a fellow of the American Public Health association, from a five-year study of the influence of prohibition on public health. His analysis of mortality statistics between 1900 and 1926 have been made public.

"The prohibition period," Dublin found, "is characterized by sharply declining mortality rates among children and adolescents of both sexes, and this decline is characteristic of a number of additional age period among women."

Better homes, more healthful food, greater freedom for relaxation and recreation, the survey continued, have been reflected in the better health of the stay-at-homes.

REPUBLICAN O. K. KANSAS CITY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Kansas City apparently satisfied the Republican national committee today that it has ample facilities for taking care of the Republican national convention next June.

The differences between the committee representatives and the city representatives were thrashed out at a meeting behind closed doors here today, and up to noon no consideration had been given to any change in the convention city.

While the Kansas City representatives were laying their cards before the Republican leaders, two Buffalo representatives, Samuel B. Botsford and George P. Urban, with invitations from Mayor Frank X. Schwab and other civic leaders of Buffalo, were waiting with an offer of $200,000 to the Republicans to bring their convention there. Butler indicated, however, that this invitation would get only polite consideration.

UNION SERVICE

Rev. J. A. MacDonald Delivered Sermon Last Night.

Dr. H. C. Hildebrand, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, of Canton, will occupy the pulpit of the Second United Presbyterian church, tonight in the union revival campaign with the Second Presbyterian and Pennsylvania Avenue Methodist Episcopal congregations. He will preach again on Friday evening, the final service of the week.

Rev. James A. MacDonald, D. D., pastor of the First United Presbyterian church of Youngstown, spoke last night, taking his text from Matthew 22:42 "What think ye of Christ? Whose Son is He?"

The sermon was preceded and followed by a song service, while choir selections were also featured. Rev. Frederick Dean, D. D., of the Second Presbyterian church, and Rev. George C. Westlake of the Pennsylvania Avenue church, assisted in the service.

Dr. MacDonald said in part: "Free thought is one of the mightiest forces in the universe. To get it focused or controlled to operate in one direction or on one object, is the problem. That is just what Jesus did. And he did so for one definite end—that it might through thinking upon Him rather high enough tension to broadcast to the world a knowledge of the true God.

"People are thinking today as they never have done before in the history of the world. They are thinking about Christ, they are seeking God as in no other way.

"You cannot account for the Christ through his human ancestry, nor through his temporal environment, nor on account of his travel, nor on account of his education in any of the schools of his day. He is not the son of some great ancestor, nor of some age or institution."

Doctor Found Women and Children Sick
More Often than Men

As a family doctor at Monticello, Illinois, the whole human body, not any small part of it, was Dr. Caldwell's practice. More than half his "calls" were on women, children and babies. They are the ones most often sick. But their illnesses were usually of a minor nature—colds, fevers, headaches, biliousness—and all of them required first a thorough evacuation. They were constipated.

In the course of Dr. Caldwell's 47 years' practice (he was graduated from Rush Medical College back in 1875), he found a good deal of success in such cases with a prescription of his own containing simple laxative herbs with pepsin. In 1892 he decided to use this formula in the manufacture of a medicine to be known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and in that year his prescription was first placed on the market.

The preparation immediately had as great a success in the drug store as it previously had in Dr. Caldwell's private practice. Now, the third generation is using it. Mothers are giving it to their children who were given it by their mothers. Every second of the working day someone somewhere is going into a drug store to buy it. Millions of bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are being used a year.

Its great success based on merit, on repeated buying, on one satisfied user telling another. There are thousands of homes in this country that are never without a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and we have gotten many hundreds of letters from grateful people telling us that it helped them when everything else failed.

While women, children and elderly people are especially benefited by Dr.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, it is promptly effective on the most robust constitution and in the most obstinate cases. It is mild and gentle in its action and does not cause griping and strain. Containing neither opiates nor narcotics, it is safe for the thinnest baby. Children like it and take it willingly. Every drug store sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Keep a bottle in your home—where many live some one is sure to need it quickly.

We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours. Just write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, and we will send you prepaid a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 20 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, just a healing, soothing vegetable laxative mixed with olive oil.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night to keep right. Try them. 15c, 30c, 60c.

COURT RULES MORTGAGE SUPERSEDES LIQUOR PENALTY AGAINST PROPERTY

Judge Lones Orders Sale, Deed and Decree of Distribution in Salem Case.

A mortgage is the first and best lien on a piece of property regardless of a liquor assessment or other penalties. It has been ruled by Judge W. F. Lones in common pleas court in the case of Pearl Zelle against Annie Fridon, of Salem, which has been pending in court for almost a year.

When the case first went before the court it was determined there was due the plaintiff $6,361.85 on a note secured by a mortgage on Salem realty. Later it was disclosed there was a liquor assessment against the property. The court held the mortgage was the best lien, and ordered the property sold to satisfy the mortgage free of any liquor assessment or other penalties.

Under this ruling, a deed was ordered and a decree of distribution entered.

WRIT AGAINST SALE OF AUTO

A temporary restraining order has been issued by Judge W. F. Lones against Sheriff George Wright from offering for sale an automobile upon which a levy has been made in execution in the case of George Hadgett, Eliza Hadgett and Minnie Lebeschner against Olive Hadgett. In a recent action the court returned judgment by default against the defendant, and an execution was ordered. The court is now asked by the plaintiff to vacate the judgment.

Growing Children

sometimes require a tonic as do their elders*

GIVE your child the right chance to develop, and you will not regret it in later years.

Many children become undernourished due to lack of appetite. Keep the appetite keen. Food nourishes the body and makes it grow.

Also watch Nature's warning for changes in the system. Skin troubles—pimples, boils and that sallow complexion—all foretell a body weakness.

In such cases, S.S.S. is the proper tonic. It improves the appetite; helps Nature build rich, red blood cells—those vitalizing elements in the blood that build and sustain the body.

In building rich, red blood cells, S.S.S. improves the processes by which the body is nourished.

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been helping children and their elders regain strength and vitality.

* The physical welfare of the child is being given more attention by school authorities. Failure to keep up with class work and absence from school is probably due to a nervousness and rundown condition that may be largely attributed to a deficiency in red blood cells.

"Y" League Rivals To Clash Tonight For First Half Title

Akrim and Kidd Quints Are Set for Final Tilt

Elimination Series Reaches Close as Championship Contenders Clash; Second Half to Get Under Way Monday.

Third and final game of the elimination series for the Y. M. C. A. Senior league first half championship will be staged tonight on the "Y" court.

Charley Kidd's Nickel Plates and Norm Ankrim's C. & P. five, both of which fought their way from lowly berths in the forepart of the season, will be the principals in tonight's scrimmage, scheduled for 8:15.

The four teams tied for first place at the end of the regular first half schedule, necessitating the play-off.

The series got under way Monday with the Nickel Plates winning from the P. & L. E., former league leaders, and the C. & P. being awarded the decision over the B. & O.

The Plates were forced to earn their place in the title series, while the C. & P. honors were awarded gratuitously. The B. & O. failed to show up in full strength and, under the rules of the league, were forced to forfeit.

The Ankrim outfit, however, will have a job cut out for it tonight, though, in the fracas with the Plates.

The probable lineups:

Nickel Plates C. & P.
Beckett F. Ankrim
Cooper F. Burke
McGraw C. Golden
McConville G. Pollock
Kidd G. McBride

Reserves—C. & P.—Stewart and

Boso; Nickel Plate—White and Cook.

On Friday night, the league managers will hold a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. at 7:15 o'clock to outline plans for the second half, which, in all probability, will start Monday night.

A number of new players will be taken in at Friday's session.

M. P. Quint Hits Century Mark In Sunday School Loop Clash

Defeats Orchard Grove M. E.; St. Stephens Nose Out Christians, 60-56, in Overtime Game.

METHODIST PROTESTANT passers set a new Sunday school league scoring record last night when they piled up an even hundred points against the Orchard Grove Avenue Methodist Episcopal five.

The M. P. combine banged the hoops for 49 baskets and two fouls.

With about four minutes to go in the final period, Ankrim dropped in four field goals in a row to make the score 98. The Northsiders took time out. Eight seconds were left. On the next tip-off Ankrim again got the ball but the defense pushed him back away from scoring territory. Ankrim, however, hooked the ball to a sleeper under the basket and the two points that brought the count up to the century mark went through the meshes.

The St. Stephens and Christians battled on practically even terms in the other game on the night's card, the St. Stephens five winning by a count of 60-56 in an overtime period.

The Christians led at the quarter, 12 to 11, and at the half, 26-23. They were still ahead, 46-33, at the third period, but the St. Stephens five rallied to knot the tally at the end of the game, 52-52, and sank the buckets needed to win the game in the overtime period.

New Grid Code Is "Kayo" to Lateral Pass

Kerr Believes Restrictions Will Kill 1927 Plan.

WASHINGTON, P., Feb. 9.—Andy Kerr, football coach at Washington and Jefferson college, believes that the restrictions placed on the lateral pass by the new rule adopted by the National Football Rules committee sounded the death knell of that offensive weapon. The double and triple pass, combined with fake passes, were used almost entirely by the W. & J. eleven during the 1927 season, in which it was not defeated.

"They encouraged the employment of the lateral pass last year and I think if they had permitted it to be continued without restriction that it eventually would have brought about development of a more spectacular and deceptive offense," said Kerr. The new rule, however, sounds its death knell. Coaches who used it last year and planned to employ it even more extensively next fall will have to return to more conservative football."

Ashland Forward Is Rated Power in Ohio Cage Circles

Captain Philip Lersch. Captain Filip is one of Ashland college's strongest threats as a power in Ohio's collegiate basketball. He can claim to be the smallest captain in the state since he stands but five feet, seven inches from the floor. Lersch is an Ashland boy.

Although he has been at the business of playing forward in college basketball for three years now, he never before struck such a stride as the one he seems to be doing right now. In the first eight games of the Ashland college season, Lersch amassed a total of 197 points. This is a little better than a 12 point average for each of the games played.

When the fact is considered that all this scoring was done against such teams as Kenyon, Mount Union, Wooster, Western Reserve, Baldwin-Wallace, Kent and Jim Thorpe's Indians, Lersch's scoring ability is commendable.

In respect to service, Captain Filip is the veteran on the Ashland college five. He will no doubt be with the college squad again next year.

Hahn Sets New Mark In Newark

Boston Flash Hangs up Nine Straight Victories.

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 9.—Lloyd Hahn, the Boston A. A. speed king who is expected to be one of America's aces in the coming Olympic games, has won nine straight victories this season. Conceding handicaps ranging up to twenty-five yards, he set a new track record of 2 minutes, 15 1-5 seconds for 1,999 yards in beating six rivals at the Newark A. C. games here last night.

William Warden, of the New York A. C., finished second, ten yards behind the flying Nebraskan.

Miss Catherine Donovan broke her own indoor record of 2:38 2-5 by winning the 800 meters event for women in 2:35 3-5.

Cash Division Is Blocking Flyweight Go

Schwartz Wants 37 1/2, But Genaro Says Only 25.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Percentage squabbles are blocking the closing of a proposed match between Frankie Genaro, who won the National Boxing association flyweight title by defeating Frenchy Belanger, and Corporal Izzy Schwartz, recognized as champion in this state. Schwartz wants 37 1-2 per cent of the purse, while Genaro insists that each boxer must receive 25 per cent.

Genaro has been matched for a bout with Firso Grande, Filipino boxer, in Buffalo, N. Y., on February 17, Grande recently won from Belanger on a foul.

Sangor, Taylor Fight Draws Ring Interest

Bitter Rivals to Battle Tonight in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Joey Sangor, Milwaukee featherweight, rules a 6 to 5 favorite to beat Bud Taylor, bantamweight champion of the world, in the ten-round main event at Jim Mullen's Coliseum show tonight.

For a non-championship affair this bout is drawing more attention than any similar attraction offered here in months. Taylor and Sangor, although technically in different divisions, are bitter professional rivals.

Taylor is recognized king of the bantams in all but three states in which boxing is legalized. But now he has designs on the featherweight title. Sangor is pointed for the same goal. It is more than likely that tonight's winner will be matched with the victor of the Benny Bass-Tony Canzoneri fight in New York tomorrow night, for the featherweight championship of the world.

AT TOLEDO, O.—Joe Packo, Toledo light heavyweight, awarded newspaper decision over Yale Okum, New York, 12 rounds.

It isn't because the game lacks interest or attractiveness—the reason is there isn't room for any more than that.

No East Liverpool-Wellsville athletic encounter, on gridiron, court or cinder track, ever lacked in interest and despite the fact that the Orange and Black lost one of their outstanding performers since they last played the Blue and White, tomorrow's battle is certain to produce as much action and competitive spirit as any before.

Coach Klinck was hit hard when Calhoun, big center, left, and, while the scoring attack was effected, the team's spirit was not diminished and so the elite 500 who get into the down river gym tomorrow night are certain of a scrap.

Coach Joe Hurst's starting lineup is indefinite. With 10 men to toss into the court instead of perhaps six or seven, the starting five is always in definite. Kirkham, Wildblood, Penabaker and Dyke have been getting in there considerable of late, occasionally figuring in the starting combination.

The girls' teams will launch the basketball card in the preliminary.

MIDLAND QUINT PLAYS MONACANS

The sum-total of pipe-joy

IF YOU could take an adding-machine and set down all the qualities you demand in a pipe-tobacco, such as fragrance, coolness, mildness, satisfaction, when you pulled the lever, the total would read: "Prince Albert." You can prove it with a pipe and a tin of P. A. Throw back the hinged lid and revel in that aroma of the world's most popular pipe-tobacco. Put a load into the bowl of your pipe and light up. Draw that cool, refreshing smoke deep down and exhale slowly. That's Prince Albert! That's living! You'll go to it from breakfast to bedtime.

Prince Albert leads all other brands in sales, because it leads in satisfaction. The word "satisfaction" has worn a little thin from much use, but a pipe and P. A. give it an entirely new meaning. You'll say so on your very first pipe-load, and you'll be a Prince Alberteer after that!

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

This tin contains TWO full ounces of what it takes to make a man smoke happy.

Hornsby Is Warned Of Chicago Gangland's Plan To 'Get Him'

Gamblers Who Took Slap On Rajah's Debts "Sore"

Sinister Threats of "Taking Him for a Ride," Accompany "Grapevine" Tip of Former Giant Star.

By Davis J. Walsh.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Rogers Hornsby might do well to surround himself with plenty of hired biceps and avoid all dark alleys, starting May 17 and for the next three days thereafter, when he will be visiting Chicago for the first time as a member of the Boston Braves, the writer was informed today. Over the circuitous "grape vine" of the gambling profession the tip came that certain men in Chicago claim they had to "take the slap" for part of Hornsby's race track "investments" with Frank Moore and that they are out to get the ball player the first time he crosses the line into Cook county.

Sinister threats of "taking him for a ride" accompanied the tip. In the argot of gangdom, this means a shooting, mostly fatal, and frank: "I don't believe anything of the kind will happen. Rival gunmen may take each other on these sightseeing trips and the community is that much better for the incident. But nothing serious could happen to Hornsby, a national figure, without a terrific kick-back up on those involved and the boys are never for anything like that."

However, I am given to understand that they would like very much to "gang" him and that if, in the midst of the general excitement, Hornsby suffered injuries that might impair his worth as a ball player, the gamblers would consider the incident closed and the books neatly balanced. At least one bet is supposed to have been made that Hornsby won't finish the season with the Braves.

According to the story, the trouble began when Moore is said to have found Hornsby's commission a little too heavy to handle and, therefore, laid part of them off in Chicago with the understanding that Hornsby would make good if the bets were lost. The ball player, meantime, considered that

Cub President Fails to Woo Hornsby Away

Fuchs, in Boston, Refuses to Consider Deal.

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Chicago baseball fans had hopes of seeing Rogers Hornsby in a Cub uniform this season were disappointed today by William Veeck, Cubs president, just back from Boston.

"I didn't get to first base with President Fuchs of the Braves," said Veeck. "I mentioned Hornsby, and Fuchs said Santa Claus had never been to Boston before and there was no use hurting the old man's feelings by letting the gift get away."

The Cubs are busy getting ready for their trip to Catalina Island for the spring training grind. They leave Sunday.

ILLINOIS BEATS NORTHWESTERN

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Feb. 9.—Northwestern university found itself down in third place in big ten basketball standings today as a result of yielding to Illinois here last night, 32 to 20.

The game proved one of the biggest upsets of the current season. Because of ineptness and injuries, the Illini were scarcely conceded a chance to win against the Wildcats.

Illinois grabbed an early lead, setting the pace at the half, 17 to 12. Mills, How and Cann were the nucleus of a smooth-working combination that kept the Purple cagers baffled throughout.

Dickerson is Matched With Boylestein Here

Pittsburgh Scrapper Replaces Patsy Kelley; Chester and Wellsville Boxers in Opening Bout.

Three substitutions among the six performers on the Monday night mitt card at the Eagles' arena, none of which, however, is expected to detract from the sum-total ability of the program, were announced today by Matchmaker Tom McDonough.

Patsy Kelly, out of the Pittsburgh district, who was billed to go on with Freddy Boylestein, New Kensington lightweight, in the six-round semi-finals, has been forced to cancel his appearance here, and, in his stead, McDonough has booked Walter Dickerson, of Pittsburg.

Kelly is matched for a main bout performance in Johnstown on February 16 and, in letting McDonough in on the bad news, he says that the Pennsylvania Boxing commission will not permit him, or any other recognized pug for that matter, to use his fists in a public performance without a five-day respite between fights. He insists that this is a rule of the commission's.

Dickerson, his substitute, has fought Teddy Esterbrook, Jack Katish, Teddy Welsh and Young Sallor, among others, drawing with Welch and Esterbrook and winning from Katish.

Ray Mitchell, East Liverpool welter, is also off the card as a result of a broken bone in his right hand. He was to have met Tarzan Shaw, of Chester. In place of this bout, McDonough has lined up Paul McCray, of Wellsville, and Fred Edwards, of Chester.

Ice more than an inch thick had to be broken before 15 bathers could take a dip in the open air swimming baths at Peckham Rye, England, recently.

BROADWAY

A Thrilling Story of the Night Clubs
By Phillip Dunning and George Abbott.

"No," said Dan, "the Westcott driver found him, when he came out of the lunch room—saw his hand sticking out from a blanket. I got there shortly after."

"What time was it?" casually inquired Steve.

"Must have been—say—twenty minutes or half-past ten."

"Well, I've been here all evening, haven't I, Nick?" said Steve, instantly realizing his error.

McCorm pounced on this lead. "I didn't ask you for an alibi, but since you mention it—let's have it. Who was with you?"

Damn it all, why did he say that? Was he losing all his finesse? That wasn't worthy of him. Steve controlled himself and spoke calmly in an endeavor to hide his annoyance. "Why, Porky Thompson, and Nick here part of the time. Billie Moore one of the girls; most anybody could tell you they all saw me."

And then it returned little Pork strolled in from the cabaret where he had been trying to reason with the Chicago gorillas who wanted to get up on the runway with the weenies. McCorm shot the question at him before he could count three. "Thompson, what time were you here with Steve and Nick to-night?"

Porky hesitated; caught a signal from Steve. "I came in—about—five minutes after nine"—Steve signaled again with his left fingers—"Yes, sir,—five minutes after ten." And blinked like a sleepy owl.

"Why so positive?" said he of the homicide squad.

Steve cut in. "I happened to ask him for the correct time when he came in."

"You didn't have a watch?" McCorm's eyes were fixed on the gold watch chain across Steve's vest front.

"Sure, but I wanted to see if I was right."

CHAPTER 24.

"What's the matter?" chipped in Porky. "What's up?"

Nick, wringing his fat hands and then mopping his shiny forehead, informed him: "Some one killed Scar Edwards."

Porky smiled fatuously, but receiving a black look from Steve he changed is mood and added, lugubriously, "Gee, that's too bad."

The music drowned any further conversation, and the next moment the weenies returned through the swinging doors, relaxing immediately into their accustomed boredom, going at once to the prop table and making some hurried changes in their costumes. A begrudging amount of applause followed them in from the cabaret. Roy Lane began to crab about the quality of the music as he too changed, blaming it for the patrons' lack of enthusiasm.

McCorm strolled up to Nick. "Nice looking bunch, Nick," he remarked.

"Would you like to know one of 'em?" asked Vordis, only too anxious to be accommodating. He hadn't liked the tone of the preceding conversation, and bulls were annoying in a night club, anyhow.

Dan was looking at Pearl, the weenie from uptown, who was indifferently changing her slender bare back toward him. "That red-headed gal sort of appeals to me," he said.

Nick nodded; went up to Pearl; touched her on the shoulder; spoke a few words and brought her down to the dick. "Pearl, I want you to be nice to my old friend, Dan McCorm, here."

Pearl looked at him without a speck of interest, hand on her slim hip. "How are you?" she said.

Dan smiled faintly. "I was thinking I'd seen you somewhere before."

"That's an old one," Pearl replied, absolutely unfriendly.

"On the level," he said. "You used to be dancing at the Golden Bowl, didn't you?"

For a moment she hesitated, and the heavy, blue lids lowered. "No sir; not me," she said, and went back to her dressing table.

A few minutes after that, Dan McCorm strolled out as quietly and as unobtrusively as he had strolled in. Instructed by Steve, Porky shadowed him.

Li had swept out to sing, as huge as a Christmas tree in her spangles, and Roy was introducing her as Miss Lillian Rice, Broadway's sweetest song bird, when Ruby, changing next to Billie, caught the flash of the slave bracelet on the tiny wrist. "Hey, will you look at that?" she yelled, which brought all the girls crushing around. Squeals of delight went up—remarks of catty jealousy—"Oh, gee, the Knickerbocker Ice Company," and Mazie, delighted. "Gee, you got him going strong, dearie."

On the side, Steve Crandall walked up and down, up and down. The bracelet had no interest for him now. He was formulating some very careful plans.

Roy Lane returned from the cabaret, a grin on his face. "Well, Boss, they're eating it up out there!" he enthused to Nick who was watching Steve and paid no attention.

Ruby saw him and shouted at him. "Well, hooper, I guess you'll be looking for a new partner!"

"Huh?" Roy pushed his way through the crowd of girls, reaching Billie. "What you got there?" he demanded, his heart sinking.

Billie looked at him, but before she could speak, Ann said, maliciously, "Steve gave it to her!"

"You ain't gonna keep it?" Roy said, looking appealingly at Billie. "Gosh, that could only mean one thing! 'Give it back to him,' he commanded, jaw firm.

"Now, Roy—"

"Listen, Billie," he stammered, "don't be a fool! You know what everybody'll be saying about you!"

The Irish in Billie Moore flamed up. Her eyes flashed. "Don't tell me what to do!" she cried.

"I tell you to give it back to him!" Roy was relentless.

"Mind your own business!" snapped Billie, urged on by Mazie.

"Please, Billie," he pleaded, sick with the thought of it. "I'm telling you something straight from the heart."

Nick Verdis pushed him away. "Hey," he growled, "what you gonna do—have some heart talks instead of doing your number?"

Roy stiffened; squared his stooped shoulders; clenched his hands. His head came up proudly. This was another great moment, a moment just as great in its way as that night in Danbury when he stood in the wings with the telegram in his hand—the telegram that had told of the death of his father.

"No, sir, Mr. Verdis," he said bravely, the hint of a quiver in his voice. "I'm right here waiting to do my stuff. Nobody can say I don't give the customers one hundred percent every performance."

He turned with wounded dignity and looked at Billie. "And even if a Jane I'd put my hope and trust in was going to the dogs, I could still go out and give 'em my best. Line up, kids!"

There was a blare of music from the orchestra. "There's the cue," he shouted taking his place at the head of the line. "Give it to 'em! Cut 'em deep! Let 'em bleed! Here we go! Let's mop up!"

And clapping a ridiculous little hat with a feather in it on the side of his head, Roy Lane danced out before his public with a fixed smile on his face.

CHAPTER 25.

Gradually the Paradise was filling up.—Roy Lane could see them from the floor—couples drifting in from the wet streets—couples and then parties of six and seven in evening clothes, directly from the theatres. They would talk and laugh as they seated themselves—talk and laugh right through a number as if it didn't exist—as if there wasn't a great talent right up there before their eyes, working hard to entertain them. Oh, well, it would all be written up above him in interviews some day.—"Roy Lane, genius unrecognized, sang at night club."

This Hawaiian number they were doing now, for instance! It had real class to it and the steps he did were unusual, but do you think they could appreciate it? No! They cared more for that rotten bootleg they were drinking, and that disgusting bunch of Steve's friends from Chicago, over there in the corner. Well, certainly they were nothing much to be proud of. They all looked like pugs and foreigners! A fine crowd for Billie to associate with! There was that Porky talking to them. He was trying to quiet them down. One was trying to get on the floor; another was offering his glass to Ruby who was at that end of the line, swinging right at him and overdoing the Hawaiian stuff. But Ruby was just common—no artist about her!

Amusements

BEBE DANIELS AT CERAMIC

"She's a Sheik," the new Bebe Daniels Paramount comedy which opened a three-day engagement at the Ceramic theatre today, shapes up as one of the season's funniest films. Listen to a brief outline of the plot:

Bebe, granddaughter of a sheik, refuses to marry the man who wants her, William Powell, a desert bad 'un. On a trip to an on-coming Foreign Legion post she meets and falls madly in love with Richard Arlen, a captain of the Legion. Unfortunately, he, being entirely wrapped up in Josephine Dunn, a visitor, fails to return Bebe's affection. Taking one of his peculiar remarks up in the wrong manner—"if you want to win your sweetheart and he resists, carry him off into the desert"—Bebe kidnaps Arlen with the help of two friends and takes him to her home in the oasis.

There, all the methods known and a few that are unknown, to women are tried out but Arlen remains obdurate. Not being at all interested in this fiery Arabian beauty, he is anxious to return to his command. Finally, Bebe agrees to take him back whereupon Powell appears on the scene. Knowing that Arlen is technically a deserter, he sends word to the latter's superior officer, The Legionnaires arrive to shoot the deserter and Powell's bloodthirsty tribe surrounds them. Then, when all seems lost—why continue?

From the above, the action and plot can easily be visualized. As for the laughs, there's there aplenty. For instance, Bebe's efforts to tame the man she loves involve a leopard, a wild animal cage, a whip and everything but actual brute force. A modern go-getting cave-woman if ever there was one! #### READ BIBLE, PASTOR URGES

Rev. L. S. Hoover, of Tionesta, Pa., spoke last night in the Oakland Free Methodist church on the topic, "Three Aspects of the Bible."

Services are being featured by special musical programs.

In loving remembrance of our dear child, Irene Evelisizer, who departed this life one year ago today, age 17 years.

One long year without our darling, And in our home we miss her so; She was all our joy and pleasure, And we are sad wherever we go. What is home without our baby? She was all we had to love, But we know she is safe with Jesus, In the Heavenly home above.

Sadly missed by her Father and Mother.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES COLEMAN, SISTER GOLDIE AND FAMILY.

Disturbing Night Cough Quickly Stopped.

"A distressing cough and irritated throat kept me miserably awake at night and prevented others from sleeping. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound quickly comforted and relieved me. Helped my neighbors over 'flu' coughs too. Feel I must tell you about it," says H. C. P., Salinas, Snug Harbor, N. Y. "Wonderfully soothing and healing.
